BLACK SWAN

October 4, October 5, and October 7

RATED: R (Strong sexual content, disturbing violent images, language and some drug use) LENGTH: 108 Minutes

DESCRIPTION: In director Darren Aronofsky's psychological thriller, ambitious New York City ballet dancer Nina Sayers (Natalie Portman) lands the lead in "Swan Lake" but soon thinks her dreams of stardom are threatened by a rival ballerina (Mila Kunis). As opening night nears and the pressure to be perfect builds, Nina's obsession descends into paranoia and delusion. Portman won an Academy Award for the film, which also nabbed an Oscar nod for Best Picture.

EASY A

October 11, October 12, and October 14

LENGTH: 92 Minutes

DESCRIPTION: High school is the setting for this freewheeling comedic twist on Nathaniel Hawthorne's 19th-century novel The Scarlet Letter. Ambitious student Olive (Emma Stone) decides to boost her popularity by pretending to be the school slut. As the school's swirling rumor mill increases both her notoriety and her finances, Olive enjoys her newfound status but eventually must decide which is more important: popularity or self-esteem.

BURLESQUE

October 18, October 19, and October 21

LENGTH: 100 Minutes

DESCRIPTION: After leaving Iowa with stars in her eyes, Ali (Christina Aguilera) arrives in Los Angeles and at a burlesque lounge, where she dreams of taking the stage with her soaring voice. Club owner Tess (Cher) is about to lose the place and thinks Ali may help business. Meanwhile, Ali's roommate (Cam Gigandet) starts to fall for her in this snappy, Golden Globe-nominated comedy co-starring Stanley Tucci as Tess's sidekick and Kristen Bell as Ali's rival.

JUST GO WITH IT

October 25, October 26, and October 28

LENGTH: 116 Minutes

DESCRIPTION: When plastic surgeon Danny Maccabee (Adam Sandler) lies to his girlfriend that he is a divorced family man, he recruits his office manager (Jennifer Aniston) and her children to role-play as his ex-wife and kids -- generating a flood of farcical results and unintended consequences. Nicole Kidman co-stars.

*NOTE: Please bundle up or bring a lap throw with you to the movie. The room is located on the north side of the building, and some people tend to need an extra layer of clothing during the movie.
